LOCAL INTELLIGENCE.

HEALTH AMONG MINERS. - The early break down of health observed among Cornish miners, and commonly regarded as an affection of the lungs -" miner's tisic"-is declared, by competent authority, to proceed rather from disturbed action of the heart; and this, according to Dr. Houghton, the distinguished Dublin phisiologist, is caused by the great and sudden strains put upon the system by the ascent from the pits, at a time when the body is not sufficiently forti-fied with food. In his valuable address on the "Relation of Food to Work," Dr. Houghton says: "The labor of the miner is peculiar, and his food appears are hadly suited to meet its require miner is peculiar, and his food appears to me badly suited to meet its requirements. At the close of a hard day's toil, the weary miner has to climb, by vertical ladders, through a hight of from 600 to 1,200 feet, before he can reach his cottage, where he naturally looks for his food and sleep. This climbing of the ladders is performed hastily, is almost a gymnastic feat, and throws a heavy strain (amounting from most a gymnstic feat, and throws a heavy strain (amounting from one-eight to one-quarter of the whole day's work) upon the muscles of the tired miner during the half-hour that concludes his daily toil. A flesh fed man (as a red Indian) would run up the ladders like a cat, using the stores of force already in reserve in his blood; but the fearsh miner who is fed chiefly on the Cornish miner, who is fed chiefly on dough and fat, finds himself greatly dis-tressed by the climbing of the ladders— more so indeed than by the slower labor more so indeed than by the slower labor of quarrying in the mine. His heart, over-stimulated by the rapid exertion of muscular work, beats more and more quickly in its efforts to exidate the blood in the lungs, and so supply the force re-

"RAISED" HIM.-Yesterday afternoon several convivial spirits were gathered around the stove in a popular saloon in this city, there being among the number a worthy son of the Green Isle, and another man "native and to the manne born." Our Hibernian friend declaimed against the atrocious misuse of the word
'traise' by Americans generally, saying that 'bring up' should be used instead.
The American with characteristic national pride, took exceptions, vehemently asserting that 'traise' was the proper word;
he had been 'traised' in Pennsylvania, in Texas, in California, and in various portions of the Sagebrush State. He stoutly maintained that it was right to speak of 'traising' horses, cattle, or anything else; that he had 'traised' them and expected to 'traise' them again.
Finally one of the party who had been sitent during the ferocious combat of words, tarned upon our American hero against the atrocious misuse of the word words, turned upon our American hero and said: "Yes, and you can raise h-l." At this our friend beat a hasty retreat, followed by a hearty laugh and a shower of imprecations. We are glad the incident occurred, for thereby we have "raised" an item.

District Court.—Sessions were held yesterday in the morning, afternoon and vening. In the case of Stein vs. Nicoich the jury returned a verdict for the efendant. The case of Voss vs. McLean, on appeal from a Justice's Court, was dis. missed, on the ground that the District t had no jurisdiction. The case of ison vs. Lincoln county was referred case of Lasiwell vs. Wells, pealed from a Justice's Court, was dissert. In the appeal case of Morsev vs. Senterobooker—8\( \) 6 5\( \) 6\( \) 6\( \) 6 \( \) 6\( Court had no jurisdiction. The case of Harrison vs. Lincoln county was referred but in many places a thin covering of its is found, and where the thorough-fares are sideling, which is generally the case, the chances of a slip up are more than two to one. We observe, however, that some of our people have adopted the suggestion made by us yesterday by sprinking ashes on the sidewalk. This is a good precaution, and we hope others will adopt it. A little trouble in this matter may save much trouble in the

ENDED IN SMOKE .-- Last evening about 6 o'clock there was a heavy smoke observed overhanging the whole town, and led to the presumption that there was a smouldering fire in some part of the town which might burst into a conflagration at any moment; but an investigation showed that some one had been burning brush, and this caused the apprehension which speedily ended in smoke.

TELEGRAPHIC DIFFERENCES.—The two telegraphic companies (or at least their agents) in this city are at loggerheads. A day or two ago Mr. Wyatt, of the Atlantic and Pacific line, opened the ball by a card which appeared in our paper, and this morning Mr. Sears, of the Western Union has something to say in response. We invite attention to the lat-ter gentleman's card.

Mn. Bocquenzz, of the firm of Shea Bocquerez & McKee, corner of Front and Jackson streets, San Francisco, wholesale dealers in wines and liquors, is sojourning in Pioche. The firm of which Mr. B. is a member has a good reputation in the mercantile community and liquor dealers generally. Mr. B. will remain in town u few days longer to receive orders.

Accrees, - To-morrow ( Saturday ) there will be offered for sale at the salesroom of E. A. Friend, auction and commission merchant, Main street, by George Davis, auctioneer, a great variety of articles, and also a house and lot. We will not undertake to enumerate all the articles to be offered, but will simply di-tect the reader, attention to the attenrect the reader's attention to the adver-tisement in another column.

HAMILTON STAGE. - By telegraph, as netioned yesterday morning, a stage was to have left Hamilton at 12 o'clock noon on Wednesday, but in the present con-dition of the roads its arrival in the usu-al time could not be expected. If the weather continues clear and cold, how-ever, it is believed regular time will be made herenfter.

SALT LARE STAGES.—There has not been an arrival of a stage from Salt Lake for several days, although a stage left here on Tuesday and another on Thursday for the City of the Baints. The non-arrival of stages on that route is of course attributable to the unanutily heavy fall of snow on the route. A Balt Lake stage was expected last night.

THE WEATHER. - Yesterday was a clear and cold day. There was no thaw what-ever, the snow maintaiding its ground without dimunition.

HOLIDY PASSERTS.-P. Heitzelman bus received for the holidays a large assort-ment of diamonds, jewelry and silver-ware, which he will sell cheaper than any house in town. Call and examine. d12-1m REMOVAL. - James Finlayson has removed his dry goods store to the building next door above James Cronan's gro-cery store. Finlayson has a superior stock of goods.

A new circulating library, imported cigars, tobacco, stationery and confection-ery at J. Levin & Co.'s, opposite Hamil-ton's saloon, Main street.

BREAD .- Eight loaves of good baker's bread, made from California flour, for $1, at the Eagle Bakery, Main strest. d6-tf H Freudenthal.
